FROM THE OLD WORLD.

[From the great London (Eng.) Times. Among the many specifics introduced to the pab lle for the cure of dyspepsis, indigestion derange-ments of various kinds, and as a general fam ly medicine, none have met with such genuine appreclation as Hop Bitters. Introduced to this country but a comparatively short time since, to meet the great demand for a pure, safe, and perfect family medicine, they have rapidly increased in favor until they are, without question. desires to inform the public in general that he has all the dedicacies of the season pertaining to a first-class confectionery-viz.:

the most popular and valuable medicine known. Its world-wide renown is not due to the advertising it has received; it is famous by reason of its inherent virtues. It does all that is claimed for it. discharges its curative powers without any of the evil effects of other bitters or medicine, being per-fectly safe and harmless for the most frai! woman CANDIES, FRENCH and PLAIN, made of the smallest child, and weakest invalid to use. Few are the homes indeed where the great discovery has not already been halled as a deliverer and welcomed nota rendy been hailed as a deliverer and welcomes as a friend. It does what others affect to do. Com-posed of simple materials, it is a marvel of deli-cate and successful combination. Nothing to wanting. Every ingredient goes straight to the mark at which it is simed, and never fails. Plea-

THOUSANDS RECEIVED. FERRUARY 9, 1882.
I have tried experiments on myself and others with Hop Ditters, and can easily reconnected them as a pleasant and efficacions medicine. I have found them specially useful in cases of congration of the kieneys, as well as in killous derangements.

Rev. J. Milnen, M. A...

Rector to the Dake of Edinburg

Gentlemen.—Since writing you of the great ben-cit I had derived from taking Hop Bitters, I gave a friend a bottle who had been suffering much from dy-pepsia and sluggish liver, and the change was marvedous; he appeared another being aitogether. He had tried several other remedies without any benefit. I could name over a dezen other missen-ARTRUE C. HALL. LONDON, ENG., September 1, 1882.

KATZENBACH OF, GERMANS. August 28, 1881.

Dear sirs. - I have taken your most precious es-sence. Hop Bitters—and I can already, after as hors a time, assure you that I feel much better han I have felt for months. I have had, during the course of four years, three times an inflammation of the kidneys. The kid-in January, 1880, was the wood; and I took a lot of medicine to cure the same, in consequence of of medicine to cure the same, in consequence of which my stomach got torribly weatened. I saffered from coorneas pains had to bear great torments when taking nourishment, had slowpless nights—but none of the medicine was of the least use to me. Now, in consequence of taking Hop-Bitters, these pains and inconveniences have entirely left me, I have a good night's rest, and amagnificently strengthened for work, while I siways had to lay down during the day, and this almost cover hard. I shall takink it my duty to recomevery heur. I shall think it my duty to recom-mend the Bitters to all who suffer, for I am stre I cannot thank the Lord enough that I came across-
